

The Family Safety Starter Checklist

12 things every Nigerian family should do this week

Who it's for: every Nigerian family — whether you live in a gated estate or a face-me-I-face-you compound, drive your own car or board a danfo every morning.

The families who stay safe aren't lucky — they're prepared. This isn't about fear or expensive gear. It's 12 simple habits you can start this week, free. Print this out, tick each box with your family, and you'll be measurably safer by the weekend. No panic. No paranoia. Just a plan that works.

Do these this week

Work through them one category at a time — most take five minutes or one short conversation.

AWARENESS & MOVEMENT

- ☐ Agree on a family code word that means "something is wrong — do exactly what I say, now."
- ☐ Vary your routes and times — avoid being predictable, especially to and from home.
- ☐ At ATMs, stay alert, keep your phone away, and scan around before you step away.

HOME & ESTATE

- ☐ Lock gates and doors every single time — and never let children open the gate for anyone without an adult.
- ☐ Agree a safe room and a family meeting point if something happens.

CHILDREN & SCHOOL

- ☐ Confirm your child's school pickup password and authorised-collector list.
- ☐ Make sure each child knows your phone number and one trusted adult's number by heart.

Going deeper: this checklist says "agree a safe room." The full Playbook shows you how to turn your whole home into a hard target in 5 layers (Module 3) and walks every member of your household through one practised plan (Module 8).

TRAVEL

- ☐ On long or late trips, share your live location with one trusted person — and turn it off when you arrive.

MONEY & ONLINE

- ☐ Never click "verify your account" links from SMS or WhatsApp. When in doubt, call your bank's official line.
- ☐ Turn on transaction alerts and set a sensible daily transfer limit.

YOUR EMERGENCY PLAN

- ☐ Save the emergency numbers below in every family phone.
- ☐ Keep a small go-bag (torch, some cash, water, first-aid, copies of IDs) and practise your plan once.

 Keep these numbers handy

For	Contact
Any emergency (national)	112
Police rapid response (PCRRU)	WhatsApp 0805 700 0003
Civil Defence (NSCDC)	199
Road emergencies (FRSC)	122
Disasters (NEMA)	0800 2255 6362
Health emergencies (NCDC)	6232

STAY READY, EVERY WEEK

Get a free safety tip every week

Join our WhatsApp channel for short, practical tips that keep your family sharp – no spam, leave any time.

 Join our free WhatsApp channel →

Tap the button, or scan the code with your phone camera →

SCAN TO JOIN

Ready for the complete plan?

The full Family Safety Playbook (Nigeria Edition) turns these habits into one complete system – 8 practical modules, 10 Quick-Reference Safety Cards, a verified Emergency Contacts Directory, and a recommended gear checklist.

Launch price ₦15,000 ~~regular ₦20,000~~

Get the full Playbook
→

© 2026 Jerry Asemota · The Family Safety Playbook. This checklist is general safety guidance, not professional security advice. Every situation is different – use your own judgement, and in any emergency contact the appropriate authorities immediately.